

Dr. Anilkumar Varsat
Incharge Principal, H M Patel Institute of English Training & Research
Vallabh Vidyanagar (email : anilvarsat07@gmail.com)

Dr. Varsat was born in Gujarat (India) on 25th September, 1979. He received his primary and secondary education at Himatnagar, Nadiad and higher education from the Sardar Patel University at Vallabh Vidyanagar (Gujarat). In addition to his M.A. in English literature, he has also got an M.Phil from The Global Open University, Nagaland. Diploma in Music with Guitar from Sardar Patel University. CCC course from Babasaheb Ambedkar Open University. He completed his Ph.D. in Education. The title of his research study is “A Study of Pre-service English teachers’ Reflectivity enhanced through a series of Action Researches on their classroom performance.”

After completion of B.Ed. course from the same Institute he offered his services as English Language Teacher for four years to the R.P.T.P. Higher Secondary Education Complex, Science Stream, one of the only semi granted Higher Secondary Schools of the Gujarat State. He got the opportunity to offer services to mother institute and he joined the Institute on 16th March, 2007. He has offered services as a course co-ordinator from 2010 – 2011 to 2012-2013. Dr. Varsat is a Vice president, placement officer, NSS Officer, SCOPE co-ordinator, Practice Teaching and sport in-charge at the institute. He has also offered his services to the Textbook Board, Gujarat and GCERT as a textbook writer.

In addition to this Dr. Varsat has attended and presented papers in many International, National and State level conferences, seminars, workshops organised by various educational bodies and institutions. Dr. Varsat has to his credit of thirteen papers, article publications in various ISNB journals. He also Published a book on “English Teachers’ Reflectivity Enhanced through Action Research” in LAMBERT Academic Publishing, with ISBN 978-3-659-74900-1